Summary: There will be many challenges to overcome as we pursue the vision of who God has called us to be over the next 10 years. Some of them will be external and some will be internal. Perhaps the most dangerous challenge to moving forward is to spend too much time looking backward.

Each week you will open the Bible and explore the Scripture for the week. While you're there, take a look at the verses that surround your text for the week. As you read, you might want to make a list of observations. Try to put yourself in each of the character's shoes. Make a list of questions you may not have answers to. Ask God what He may be trying to teach you.

My first impression of the passage:

Observations:

Scripture surrounding your text-

Characters (Who's listening? Who's in the story?) / Setting / Culture-

My Questions:

1. How do you generally respond to new things? To change?
2. What aspect of your past have you had to move on from in order to continue following Christ?
3. Why could it be detrimental to assume that God is going to do things the same way in the future that He has in the past?

1. What is something you can do to embrace the change or encourage others to embrace the change?

Spend time in your group lifting Crossroads and our 10 year vision up in prayer.
